Wild Tales of Border Told In Ford Suit

Uncensored Accounts of Conspiracy of Mexicans to Seize Several States

$1,000,000 libel suit against "The Chi cago Daily Tribune," now entered upon its fifth week, to-day got what they have been waiting for, namely, the Mayican have been waiting for, namely, the picturesque touch from the Mexican

zona and the southern part of Cali-fornia; sombreros, embroidered riding the examination of talesmen he conboots, cattle rustling, sudden and san- sulted with his counsel, but for the guinary raids by Mexican bandits, and bit of German propaganda in the interested dignity as he surveyed the form of one German iron cross, taken | courtroom through his nose glasses, from a slain Mexican bandit, and three ancient Mauser rifles, also of Teutonic

The story came mainly from Marcus W. Hines, now a customs official at Santa Maria, Tex., and Thomas S. Mayfield, of Pharr, Hidalgo County, Tex., rancher, contractor and land dedeputy sheriffs and rangers, in the saddle most of the time. There was nothing of the dime novel in their recitals, nor could they be betrayed BONTI, AUHO, private, of Woodhalt Street, Brooklyn.

Other witnesses were Thomas J. Alexander, postmaster and keeper of the general store at Sebastian, Tex., where, he said, there were eight American families before bandits frightened them away, leaving the predominant Mexi-can residents to hold possession; Thomas P. M. Bishop, former United States marshal at San Antonio, Tex., who confessed that he was in the cow business "until I had the misfortune to run for office," and John R. Harold, an immigration inspector at Browns-

Mayfield testified that he took a copy states, known as the "Plan of San Diego," from one Bacilio Ramos, a Mexican revolutionist whom he captured. He turned the papers over to ment. Mr. Paries, who will act as N. J.

New Revue Supplants Guns on Theatre Roof

THE audience at the new revue which opened last night in the roof garden annex of the Century Theatre sat where a year ago a battery of five 3-inch anti-aircraft guns squatted, snouts to the sky, waiting for air raiders. It was the presence of the guns, a secret to the whole city, which prevented any entertainment on this part of the roof last summer. Throughout the last months of the war actors played their parts and audiences laughed and applauded in the adjoining auditorium all unaware that unusual precautions to prevent the escape of a ray of light from the house had been taken, to say nothing of the fact that a fivegun battery, with coast guard gunners at their posts, stood almost within reach stanning the sky,

Charges Are Absurd, Superintendent of Dannemora Insists

Dr. Ross Says in Telegram That Institution Is Open for Inspection Any Time; Any One Can See Records

Dr. J. R. Ross, medical superintendent of Dannemora State Hospital for the Criminal Insane, yesterday sent this telegram to The Tribune: "The statements charging ill treatment and the illegal retention of inmates at the Dannemora State Hospital are not only untrue, but absurd. The conduct of this hospital is open to the fullest survey, and I will gladly welcome and give the utmost oppor-tunity for investigation to any member of your staff you might wish to assign to the task, or to any commission that may be appointed by the Governor.
